Kau Kau Barbecue Market

"Barbequed Bounty"

Under a bright red awning in the International District, you will find this little restaurant specializing in delectable Chinese-style barbecued meats. The restaurant is small and minimally decorated, but it's popular among locals. The patrons come primarily from the neighborhood, but when it's game day at Safeco Field, stadium-goers fill the place up. Crispy duck and chicken are probably the most popular dishes. Other barbecued meats include excellent pork, and the restaurant also offers a variety of Cantonese dishes.

Pecos Pit Barbeque

"Barbeque Delights"

The decor at Pecos Pit Barbeque is virtually nonexistent, unless you consider outdoor tables and take out windows decor, but the eatery serves up delicious helpings of its speciality - pork. The meat is offered in just about every shape and size, and slathered with one of the best barbecue sauces in town. Unless you have a tongue of steel, or you are feeling adventurous, you might want to stay away from the hot sauce!
