

"Strangest Outdoor Activities in Seattle"

Realizzata per : Cityseeker

📍 2 Posizioni indicati

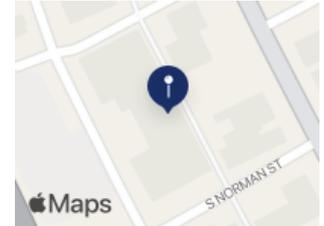

📷 by StockSnap ©

Seattle Bouldering Project

"The Climb"

The Seattle Bouldering Project is nothing like sounds! No, they not make you cut boulders, but rather climb them. With the aim to create a rustic lifestyle and get rid of frustration, the centers offers playing and fun games in the open with boulders. You will love the climbing, top roping and other interesting activities lined up for you. When not outdoors, they have indoor plastic boulders that you can use. They love climbing and it's what makes them so popular.

☎ +1 206 299 2300

🌐 www.seattleboulderingproject.com/

✉ info@seattleboulderingproject.com

📍 900 Poplar Place South, Seattle WA

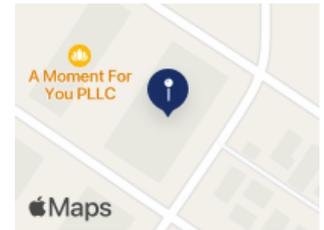

📷 by "Public Domain" ©

School of Acrobatics and New Circus Arts

"Circus Classes and Parties"

Located on Orcas street, the School of Acrobatics and New Circus Arts conducts 12 week-courses during which they provide lessons in circus acts, acrobatics and gymnastic to the students. Touted as one the largest circus schools in the US, the facility also conducts summer camps where people of all ages can enroll. Private two-hour trapeze courses are available here as well as special party packages where kids get to take part in various circus activities.

☎ +1 206 652 4433

🌐 sancaseattle.org/

✉ office@sancaseattle.org

📍 674 South Orcas Street, Seattle WA

UNIRSI A NOI A :
cityseeker.com