Arbor House Inn & Suites

"Historic Bed & Breakfast"

The Arbor House Inn and Suites consists of four historic houses clustered around a very well manicured garden. The homes date back to 1903. Renovations to the property have garnered the San Antonio Conservation Society Plaque for excellence in historic renovations. The houses contain three suites apiece, all of which have high ceilings, pine floors, private baths and balconies. Romance, elegance, and a convenient location make this bed and breakfast a good choice for anyone looking to stay near downtown without having to stay in a corporate-run hotel.

The Emily Morgan Hotel - a DoubleTree by Hilton

"Historic Hotel Near The Alamo"

Housed in an architecturally stunning Gothic-style building constructed in 1924, this hotel has been beautifully restored and offers one of the best locations downtown. Literally across the street from the Alamo, the property is just two blocks from the River Walk and a short walk from many other downtown attractions. Guest rooms have luxurious amenities such a whirlpool bathtubs, plush bathrobes, high quality linens, in-room spa services and tastefully appointed decor. Dine at the onsite ORO Restaurant & Bar with seasonal offerings or swim laps in the heated outdoor pool. Business travelers will appreciate the business and fitness centers, ideal for keeping up with work and fitness routines!
