Ácena

"Delicious, Modern Mexican Fare"

Pamper your taste buds by digging into delectable modern Mexican fare at Acenar. The popular Mexican restaurant offers patrons fine dining in an expansive space. Tortilla Soup, Stewed Pork Tips and Buttermilk Fried Oysters are just some of the delicacies on offer. Enjoy the exquisitely prepared food in the main dining area, lay back with Latin American drinks in the bar or simply relax in the lounge. However, the highlight of the restaurant is the lovely outdoor patio and the stunning river views that it offers. If you decide to try out this place, know that the best to visit is during happy hours when you can enjoy Platitos and cocktails for USD 5 every evening.

Mi Tierra Cafe Y Panaderia

"Classic Mexican Food & Bakery"

Located in Market Square, this San Antonio oldie-but-goodie has been a favorite of both locals and tourists since 1946. The Mexican specialties such as Chile Rellenos, Huevos Rancheros and the huge combination platters are excellent, and the atmosphere truly takes you south of the border. Nowhere else will you be serenaded by mariachis while enjoying chorizo and eggs or an eight-ounce rib eye. But be sure to have a tip ready for the entertainers; they want to enjoy a meal later as well. Finally, do not miss the panaderia (bakery) for fresh breakfast pastries, Mexican breads and sweet rolls.

La Fonda On Main

"Traditonal Mexican Cuisine"

Situated near-North side, La Fonda on Main is the oldest Mexican restaurant in Monte Vista. This restaurant offers casual dining with an authentic Mexican taste. Close to San Antonio College, La Fonda is located at the junction of Main Street and Craig Place in a modest building with indoor and outdoor seating. The outdoor patio is particularly festive, lit with a string of colorful lights. The entrees often include tacos and grilled chicken or steaks with authentic sauces. A full bar is available.

El Bucanero

"Mexican Seafood"

El Bucanero brings the cuisine of Northwest Mexico to San Antonio. Enjoy fresh shrimp ceviche, fried tilapia, fish tacos, and more. The atmosphere is casual, featuring a mural of sea creatures swimming through the ocean and an open layout with big white arches dividing the dining room. You'll also find more familiar Mexican dishes on the menu, like enchiladas, and some American fare, like hamburgers.
