Bohanan's Prime Steaks and Seafood

"Scrumptious Fare"

Opened in 2003, Bohanan's Prime Steaks and Seafood, located in Downtown, has come as no surprise to patrons when it was awarded the Best New Restaurant in San Antonio. Owned and operated by Mark Bohanan, the restaurant has a lovely ambiance, perfect for special occasions. Intimate seating spaces, thoughtful lighting accents and attractively laid out tables welcome patrons to a warm and friendly space. On offer here is authentic Japanese Akaushi Steaks, well curated meats and a slew of seafood specials. You cannot miss out on their French-Grilled Oysters, their signature specialty Bohanans House Salad and the Filet. For a perfect end to your meals, indulge in their decadent desserts-their Espresso Tiramisu and Madagascar Vanilla Crème Brulé are a must try. Their alcohol menu is pretty impressive as well. They offer a good collection of wines, cocktails and other mixed drinks. For those who love to smoke a cigar, there is a wide array of different flavors.

El Bucanero

"Mexican Seafood"

El Bucanero brings the cuisine of Northwest Mexico to San Antonio. Enjoy fresh shrimp ceviche, fried tilapia, fish tacos, and more. The atmosphere is casual, featuring a mural of sea creatures swimming through the ocean and an open layout with big white arches dividing the dining room. You'll also find more familiar Mexican dishes on the menu, like enchiladas, and some American fare, like hamburgers.
