The Fish Market Restaurant

"Seafood with a View"

Diners are drawn to the Fish Market for the fresh seafood and the tremendous view of the San Diego Bay. This casual downstairs restaurant has a snug oyster and cocktail bar, as well as an outstanding sushi bar. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, perfect for group outings. The restaurant has a separate private dining room, an elevated main dining area and a waterside deck – a beautiful outdoor dining experience with the fresh bay air and sunshine beaming on you. The food is arguably some of the best seafood in San Diego, with highlights including clam chowder, king crab legs, ginger lime prawns, oyster Rockefeller, salt and pepper calamari and oh so much more.

Bertrand at Mister A's

"Fine Dining with a View"

In Downtown San Diego, this fine dining establishment is not only well known for premium cuisine, but also for an expansive wine list. In fact, it has been praised for hosting "one of the most outstanding wine lists in the world." While many San Diego restaurants allow for casual dress, this particular establishment requests more formal attire. Men should wear long-sleeved dress shirts and all guests are asked not to wear shorts. Popular entrees include linguini with clam sauce and veal piccata. Enjoy cocktails from the outdoor patio as the sun sets and gives way to the city lights below. Whether you're dining or drinking, Bertrand at Mister A's is a magical venue for a memorable evening.

Humphreys Restaurant

"Oceanic Extravaganza"

Humphreys Restaurant is known for being one of the best waterfront restaurants in San Diego. The restaurant specializes on contemporary International cuisine highlighting on seafood. This beautiful restaurant overlooking the scenic marina on San Diego Bay entertains hotel guests, locals and seafarers who enjoy the nightly blues/rock/r&b/jazz at their Backstage Music Club. Humphreys is not only known for its fine food but also for their decadent breakfasts and scrumptious brunches. Look out for their special holiday brunches as well. The menu changes seasonally, yet the taste and flavor is one of the best.

Red Marlin Waterfront Restaurant Bar and Terrace

"Celebrate Life"

Red Marlin is great for any occasion, be it a romantic rendezvous, a casual meal, business dinner, a family affair or a get together with friends. The restaurant is located near the Marina and has a great view of the water and the port, giving you a magical bayside dining experience with a fresh and contemporary menu. The restaurant gives you several options to dine such as the open-air terrace with a cozy fire pit, the chic indoor and outdoor bar, many private dining rooms and the uber cool Red Marlin Chef's Table. The limelight of the restaurant, the Chef's Table is right in the heart of the restaurant, with its own custom made built in fire pit and heavily laden wine wall, it offers general or private dining. Whatever be the occasion, celebratory or casual, join them anytime from breakfast to lunch, happy hour to dinner, you will relish the wonderful time spent here.
