Pickwick Gardens

"Bowling & Ice Skating"

Pickwick Gardens is a fun combination of several attractions, from an ice skating center, a bowling alley, and event space. Pickwick Ice Center is a 85-by-200-foot state-of-the-art ice arena. Its "Learn to Skate" program will teach you the basics of ice skating, while its advanced classes are taught by world-class coaches. The center also offers a variety of youth, college, and adult hockey programs, as well as a pro shop for all of your ice-cutting needs. If you don't like ice skating than go bowling. With 24 bowling lanes and a video arcade, you can go for a single night or join a league.

Disney Studios

"International Headquarters"

This is where the Walt Disney Company has been working its magic since 1923. Relocated from its original studio at Silver Lake, the Burbank studio was established after the monumental success of the 1937 film Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. The international headquarters of this iconic company, this state-of-the-art facility offers its services in the fields of film production, music publishing, stage production, distribution, and marketing. The site spans over 51 acres (21 hectares) and features notable structures like the Michael D. Eisner Building, Disney Legends Plaza, and the Frank G. Wells Building, among others. There is also a provision at the Main Theater to showcase first-run Disney movies for special guests. A colossal landmark on 500 South Buena Vista Street, the studio is unfortunately not open to the public, but hoists gigantic head constructions of Mickey Mouse and the Seven Dwarves over its steep red-bricked walls for passers-by to savor.
