The Senator Restaurant

"Comfort Foods in Style"

Redesigned in the mid 1940s, this diner, part of the complex including the Savoy Lounge, has been serving generation after generation of dedicated customers. While pouring maple syrup on a pile of pancakes hot off the griddle or sipping a thick-beyond-belief chocolate milkshake, you will realize that this classic spot, close to the Eaton Centre, Canon Theater and City Hall, has become a Toronto landmark. They have separate timings for their lunch & dinner services, also they have a take away facility.

The Federal

"Drool-Worthy Brunches & Clever Cocktails"

The Federal or The Fed, as it is popularly known, is a great brunch spot. Located on the Dundas Street, this joint is not only known for its legendary brunch preparations, but also its prolific drinks menu. Popular, fruity and colorful cocktails dominate the beverage menu here; you can go for the tried and tested ones like the good ol' old fashioned or try something innovative that the bar here churns out with great pzazz. For munchy brunches, there are plenty of meat, chicken and egg dishes, as well as some vegan/veggie options. They also serve classic dishes with creative twists, like French toast topped with foie gras and Caesar salad with Doritos and gherkins, that are totally drool-worthy! The delicious comfort food that they serve deserves to be eaten appreciatively and unhurriedly; so here's a little tip - come with a lot of time on your hand, and some cash to spare since they do not accept cards.
