Ed Mirvish Theatre

"The Phantom of Toronto"

Ideally situated opposite the Eaton Centre, the Ed Mirvish Theatre is billed as Toronto's finest vaudeville house in the 1920s. The façade has changed along with the players that take to its stage. Now, after being a comic theater house, motion picture palace and a contemporary cinema, it has been returned to the look that first made it famous.

Lee's Palace & The Dance Cave

"Alternatieve Muziek Hot Spot"

Als u op zoek bent naar een grote, donkere, luide, overvolle nachtclub, maar toch met een intieme clubby sfeer, dan is deze ruimte met twee verdiepingen iets voor u. Vanwege zijn omvang, met soms tot 300 sardientjes op een avond, trekt de Lee's Palace & The Dance Cave club een aantal van de beter bekende namen in het alternatieve muziekcircuit aan. Zoals Moxy Fruvous, G-Spots, Travis, en Soul Brains (oorspronkelijke leden van Bad Brains). Gedurende de dag zijn er optredens voor personen van alle leeftijden.

Elgin and Winter Garden Theatre Centre

"Original Vaudeville"

Declared a national historic site in 1982, this structure represents the last stacked Edwardian theater in the world, meaning one theater on top of the other. It was built in 1913 as the first of the Loews vaudeville theatre chain. Located downstairs, the 1,500-seat Elgin Theatre makes for a lavish gathering with royal boxes and charming gilded plaster details. The upstairs 1,000-seat Winter Garden features trompe-l'oeil paintings of pastoral scenes and a spectacular fireproof garden hanging from the roof. ## Horseshoe Tavern

"Roadhouse Blues"

One of the city's original live music venues and where Canadian singing legend Stompin' Tom got his first break, this tavern is still the place to see the bands that put the word 'road' in roadhouse. From cowboy to punk, rock 'n' roll to grunge, the musical back room has heard it all. The sound system at Horseshoe Tavern is high decibel and, Tuesday nights, local radio station-The Edge hosts a New Music series of sounds from the street.

Royal Alexandra Theatre

"Productions with Pizzazz"

This grand theater house, Royal Alexandra Theatre, is worth seeing for its architecture and opulence as well as for the entertainment. Built in 1907 and pulled out of the demolition doldrums by Ed Mirvish, the Royal Alex, as locals call it; exudes old-fashioned charm while providing a state-of-the-art theatrical experience. Be seated by a waist-coated usher, sink into the lush red-velvet chairs and see everything from famous Broadway to local talent.

Young Centre For The Performing Arts

"Home to Toronto's Arts"

Young Centre For The Performing Arts nourishes and promotes art in a big way in Toronto. Their repertoire is vast and includes poetry recitals, readings, stand-up shows, classical and contemporary concerts, ballet, opera and even visual arts. If you reach before showtime, stop by their in-house cafe bar which serves up very palatable refreshments and drinks. Besides theatrical productions, the theater can also be rental out for private events and corporate conferences.

The Opera House

"Superb Live Music Venue"

The Opera House attracts some of the best music performers in the city. It is worth the trip to check out who's playing at a venue where bands go out of their way to perform. The place has an underground feel with a sound reminiscent of catacombs, but the environment has a charge in the air that boosts any concert. No food is offered, but the bar is fully stocked with all your rock-and-roll needs. Ticket prices vary.
