Fuglen

"Retro Time!"

Fuglen is one fun place at Karl Johans. A coffee favorite during the day turns into a great hangout for drinks in the evening. The atmosphere is a lovely retro with the music from the 50-60's. The coffee is absolutely worth for coffee lovers. The unique collections of cocktails will sure take you by surprise. The ginger daiquiri is definitely a must-try! The patio seating is relaxing and best for smokers. Call ahead for detailed information.

Internasjonale

"Global Spirits"

Spread over two floors, the Internasjonale is a pub born out of minimalism and functionalism. Opened in 2003, this bar and pub is unlike most of the popular joints because it does not have too many of the usual frills and excesses. It has a few blended spirits and beers to offer, which you can perhaps enjoy with some munchies. But little variety does not mean lesser quality. Their cocktails are very popular and creative. Try their Pjolter, a traditional drink, or Agurk Gin and Tonic, or perhaps old favorites like the Manhattan or a Dry Martini. Quite regularly, the Internasjonale hosts musical performances by several local and visiting artists.

Bar Boca

"Geweldig cocktails"

Dit is waarschijnlijk een van de meest intieme bars van Oslo, met net genoeg ruimte voor vijf tafels. De sfeer is warm en in een bewuste jaren '50 stijl. De grootste bezienswaardigheid is de eigenaar, Jan Varden. Hij is een van de weinige enthousiastelingen in Noorwegen op het gebied van cocktails mixen, en zijn kunsten hebben van hem een beetje beroemd gemaakt. Als je de beste drankjes wilt, moet je zeker hier naartoe.
