Manège d Onex

"Just Horsing Around"

Manège d Onex is a horse-riding center located in Onex, a short distance from the city of Geneva. This equestrian center is ideal for those riding a horse for the first time, as well as pros. They have sand paddocks and other facilities that make the place good for practicing horse riding. For those seriously interested, they also give lessons to prepare horsemen for exams held by the Swiss Federation of Equestrian Sports.

Col de la Givrine

"Hit the Slopes"

Col de la Givrine is an alpine retreat 20 kilometers from Nyon and 39 kilometers (24.2 miles) from Geneva or Lausanne and is the ideal place for winter sports. Skiing, tobogganing, bobsledding or snowboarding, you'll find the snow and the slopes for them all. If you don't have your sports gear, you can always rent them out at Givrine. Better still, there are two sport stores here if you're interested in adding or upgrading your gear. La Givrine is an ideal weekend getaway for singles, couples and families.
