Kells Irish Restaurant and Pub

"Irish Fun"

As Irish as its namesake, this cheery downtown establishment is warm, welcoming and close to the city's heartbeat. The wood and brass tones exude an authentic yet casual tone. Kells Irish Restaurant and Pub's full bar is accommodating, boasting one of the largest selections of malt scotches in the Northwest. Varied menu offerings include traditional Irish cuisine as well as salads, sandwiches and more. Catch your favorite football team, Gaelic games or rugby on their television screens or tap your feet to the nightly live music.

EastBurn

"A Vibrant Watering Hole"

As vibrant and eclectic as the populace it serves, EastBurn has a little something for everyone. Live music, monthly beer dinners, elevated pub fare and a rotating selection of 19 craft beers on tap are just a few of the many delights offered at this local watering hole. Enjoy brunch on the patio, or head upstairs for a more formal dinner. Downstairs, board games and skee-ball take center stage, paired with cocktails, beer and wine from a well-curated bar list. Beer and food festivals are hosted often, alongside stand-up comedy nights and live band performances. With so much and more to enjoy under a single roof, each visit to EastBurn promises to be just as laid-back or exciting as you want it to be.

Apex

"Come Here for Beer"

Don't come to Apex for dinner. Don't come for themed nights. Now that the initial rules are set, come to here for beer. Not just a beer, but just about every beer. The beer list is so long that one needs cheat sheets to decipher the best choice. Cyclists love this place. There's plenty of bike parking and a great outdoor patio for socializing and, well, drinking beer. The staff is friendly and the crowd always has a great time. Some may consider APEX a tourist attraction. If hunger strikes, go just across the wall to a restaurant that has great food.

Horse Brass Pub

"British Cheers"

Horse Brass Pub is the perfect place to raise a pint and get lost in a very colorful crowd. Do not be surprised if someone offers to play a tune on a bagpipe. The Northwest's best microbreweries are here, including Rouge YSB, as well as a huge selection of scotches. A full menu of British cuisine is offered. If you have ever wanted to order steak and kidney pie or see someone who actually would, bring a friend and have a ball.
