The News Room

"News for the Day"

In spirit with its unusual name, the extraordinary theme of the restaurant evokes wonder. The dining area is partitioned into separate rooms that are designed to mirror sections of a newspaper. The front pages of newspapers adorn the walls of the restaurant. This upscale restaurant is a favorite local hangout. The food served here is also excellent. Try the fettuccine with roasted pepper-avocado sauce that the guests here will vouch for.

Fine Line Music Cafe

"Intimate Music Venue"

The Warehouse District has many fine nightclubs and bars, but this unique music cafe is a crown jewel. Every night the best local talent or well known national acts take the stage playing rock, pop, jazz or R&B. If you like to rub shoulders with the rich and famous, let it be known that local celebrities are known to frequent this café. The menu consists of ribs, chicken and pasta.

CC Club

"A Beer & A Band"

In a world of smart bars, sports bars and smoke-free bars, this bar is almost a throw back to a different era. It is a stereotypical beer pub catering to a singles crowd. A favorite hangout for local rock musicians including Soul Asylum and the Replacements, the entertainment strays toward the rock/punk rock genre. Listen to the music, have a beer or two and try your luck at a game of pool or darts. The pub grub menu includes burgers, sandwiches and appetizers. Breakfast is served every day. You might even catch a glimpse of a famous Hollywood face such as past visitors Tom Arnold and Darryl Hannah.
