King Corona Cigars

"Paradise of Cigar Enthusiasts"

Since Ybor City was created by cigar manufacturers in 1880 and mostly populated by Cuban immigrants, it is a historically rich Tampa neighborhood. Located right in downtown, this area has become one of the most commercial parts in the city nowadays, but still, you can find really traditional places. With a 50 years history, King Corona Cigars is one of those places. Here smokers are able to enjoy a large selection of cigars and accessories. Need a snack? Grab one of the delicious Cuban sandwiches. No hesitation, a visit to Ybor can't be completed without a good cigar or some real Cuban food!

Indian Shores Coffee Company

"Extra Good Organic Coffee House"

Step into a world of aromas, and inhale the rich fragrant smells of freshly brewed organic coffee, wafting through the breeze. The casual and laid-back atmosphere of the coffee house makes it a favorite location for locals stopping by for breakfast or lunch. Choose one of the extra-large, moist blueberry or banana muffins as a compliment to your coffee. Or, if you wish, you may have an egg sandwich, decadent chocolate cake, or even assorted sandwiches, served on fresh baked ciabatta bread. Dine inside, or eat outside on the screened patio to enjoy the tropical weather, and listen to live guitar music while you enjoy your coffee. -Vickie Ferguson
