Half Price Books Records Magazines

"Best Bargains"

Half Price Books is exactly what you would expect from the name. This retailer offers books, records, CDs, DVDs, video games and more for half the cover price. With a uniquely curated inventory of new and used products, the selection is always changing at Half Price Books. What you see one day, may not be there the next. This store also buys back the books and records that may not serve you anymore, but will surely excite another customer. One man's trash is another man's treasure, right?

The Enchanted Forest

"Cozy neighborhood children's bookstore"

This neighborhood children's bookstore is indeed enchanting. With more than 45,000 titles on hand, there is something to thrill children of all ages. The knowledgeable clerks will help you find that perfect selection. Cozy up in one of the corners and relive the magic of Alice in Wonderland or grab the latest Harry Potter adventure. In a day when small bookstores rarely survive, Enchanted Forest has been around since 1992 because personalized service and the cozy atmosphere keeps customers coming back again and again.

Doc's Records & Vintage

"Vintage Vinyl"

Doc's Records and Vintage is a one-of-a-kind record shop in Fort Worth that offers a wide selection of music - most of it vinyl records. The shop offers both new and used vinyl records, some new releases and others secondhand copies of classics. Though there may only be a few of each record in stock, that just makes finding the one you were looking for that much sweeter. Be sure to stop by on National Record Store Day for live music, free food and free beer.
