Bassline

"Musical Venue"

What started out in 1994 as a small concert venue is now one of the most happening entertainment centers in Johannesburg, hosting many of South Africa's jazz legends. In 2003, Bassline was remodeled and renovated and now it can captivate nearly 1000 music fans with top-of-the-range acoustics. It has hosted over 3000 concerts of local and international music artists in the past. Apart from concerts, Bassline can also be rented for corporate functions and rehearsals. For complete details, call ahead or check the website.

Rodizio

"Celebrate the Brazilian Way"

The cuisine of this Brazilian restaurant is original, highly flavoured and delightfully presented—chourico, chicken, beef, pork and lamb chops (all slow-grilled with Brazilian marinades and spices). The fresh Moçambican prawns are served three ways—Xaxado, Bianco and Carioca. Other seafood dishes on offer include Kingklip Grelhado, Bacalhau a Ubatuba and fine calamari from the icy Falklands. Vegetarians need not worry as they have been kept in mind and are specially catered for.

Taboo

"Private and Public Parties"

This multi-purpose venue hosts private parties, club events, promotional events, and all genres of entertainment. All seven of Taboo's resident DJs, each with their own style, take turns spinning at the club's various events, and some may be available for your private event as well. One specialty of Taboo is the bachelorette party, during which the club will provide the lucky lady with a private room, private bar, and private security. Just like having your own club!

Nicci Beach

"A Pool-Side Party House"

Confined within the complex of Wild Waters in Boksburg, Nicci Beach is the name synonymous with hip and happening alfresco dance parties in this part of Gauteng. The club and lounge is set on a large wooden deck which overlooks the beautiful stretch of palm trees and the humongous wave pool of the water park. Beat the heat at the club's sundown party held every Sunday, or lounge around with your friends and gulp down tasty sangria and small bites on its chic ultra lounge and restaurant. The electrifying atmosphere of this alfresco club is fueled by the house, techno and funk music churned out by the DJs. And if you are looking to escape the crowd and enjoy with a small party of friends, then book the club's excellent table service. Make sure you visit this exotic club for a great nightout when in Johannesburg.
