Southern Railway Taphouse

"Beer Galore"

Whether you're a beer enthusiast or not, Southern Railway Taphouse is one bar you must experience. An elegant watering hole, replete with dimly-lit, contemporary interiors, vintage railway memorabilia and a lively atmosphere, expect nothing short of a truly enjoyable experience from this bar. Beer-lovers can revel in its massive collection of 40 beers on tap. While the not-so-enthusiastic ones can enjoy sipping on a succinct concoction put together by the brilliant bartender. Along with great beers, there is also an impressive selection of bar eats, which includes a variety of sandwiches, burgers and tacos.

Patrick Henry's Pub & Grille

"Historic Pub"

The first thing you'll notice about Patrick Henry's Pub & Grille is how friendly the staff is. But as you peruse the menu and take that first bite of perfectly seasoned Angus beef burger, you'll realize that this charming, casual dining restaurant/bar is something special. Located in the Patrick Henry Inn, a pre-Civil War inn which stands on Church Hill, visitors can stop by for a drink and bite to eat after visiting St. John's Church (where Patrick Henry gave his famous, "Give me liberty, or give me death," speech). Be sure to check out The Patrick Henry Burger, or build your own salad or pasta. Choose from a plethora of beers and enjoy conversations with friends.

Joe's Inn

"Plenty of Food & Beer"

Joe's Inn is a neighborhood favorite in Richmond that offers a menu spanning across American, Greek and Italian cuisines. You can't go wrong by ordering the Spaghetti a la Joe, a signature spaghetti-baked dish with provolone cheese and your choice of meat and marinara sauce, and locals rave about the fried chicken kabobs. Don't forget to pair your meal with one of the many featured beers on tap. The interior is comfortable and warm, with wooden booths and idyllic framed pictures hanging from the walls.
