

"Best Entertainment in Baltimore"

Gecreëerd door : Cityseeker

📍 6 Locaties in uw favorieten

📷 by Mbinebri

Everyman Theatre

"Something for Everybody"

This theater offers great cultural plays and events just like most theaters. What sets it apart is the location that it is housed in. Add to the fact that the management believes in giving back to the community around it. Various educational as well as outreach programs are constantly planned by the committee for the benefit of the locals. They also have a well-planned seasons which draws in the crowd on the regular.

☎ +1 401 752 2208

🌐 www.everymantheatre.org

✉ boxoffice@everymantheatre.org

📍 315 West Fayette Street, Baltimore MD

Royal Farms Arena

"Soccer And More"

Home to the Baltimore Blast MISL soccer team, Royal Farms Arena (formerly the Baltimore Arena, 1st Mariner Arena and Baltimore Civic Center) is the city's largest indoor sports and entertainment facility. It is host to more than 100,000 visitors every year who come not just for the soccer team but for events ranging from family shows like Sesame Street Live, Barney, and Barnum & Bailey Circus. Sporting attractions include circuit boxing, gymnastics and tennis events. Conventions, graduations, and performances by U2 and Elton John have also been presented here.

☎ +1 401 347 2020

🌐 www.royalfarmsarena.com/

📍 201 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore MD

📷 by thisisbossi

Power Plant Live!

"Everything at One Stop"

After a tiring day of sightseeing, a visit to the Power Plant is exactly what you need. The multiplex offers an array of dining and entertainment options. For dinner, choose from steak, Italian, Cuban and more. Several bars line the venue, tempting you to hop in and out. Some clubs hold stand up comedy shows too. Parties and concerts featuring popular bands are held on sunny summer evenings. Most of them have free entry! Come and experience the energy at this entertainment powerhouse.

☎ +1 410 752 5483

🌐 www.powerplantlive.com/

✉ lg@cordish.com

📍 34 Market Place, Baltimore MD

📷 by Caseyjonz

Joseph Meyerhoff Symphony Hall

"Home Of Great Music"

Since 1982, Meyerhoff Symphony Hall, an anchor of Baltimore's midtown cultural district, has hosted symphony orchestras and classical virtuosos from around the world, as well as an eclectic roster of popular entertainers. This is perhaps the best place to hear music in Baltimore. The acoustics are absolutely amazing. The most delicate pianissimos are clearly audible and the fortissimos positively thunder. The hall's interior is gorgeous: there are no sharp corners and every surface is curved.

by Dicklyon

MECU Pavilion

"Open-air Entertainment"

Renovated in 2006, this entertainment venue is known for hosting spectacular outdoor performances for the denizens of Baltimore. Located on Pier Six, and offering panoramic views of the gorgeous Inner Harbor, MECU Pavilion is within walking distance of many of the city's popular tourist attractions and hotels. Acts such as Willie Nelson, Matisyahu and Ke$ha have performed here making it a popular venue amongst lovers of music in the city.

+1 410 783 4189

booking@ramsheadgroup.com

731 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore MD

by lograstudio

Sully's Comedy Cellar

"Classy Comedy"

While other comedy clubs feature crass comedians and inappropriate humor, Sully's Comedy Cellar is all about providing roaring laughter without sacrificing the class. Popular comedians from the likes of Comedy Central, Last Comic Standing, HBO, and David Letterman Show have performed here. Not only can you enjoy a good laugh here, you can also enjoy a good meal from the upstairs Bowman Restaurant. Showtimes are limited, only three acts a week on Friday and Saturday evenings, so plan accordingly.

+1 410 665 8600

www.sullyscomedycellar.com/

bowman.restaurant@gmail.com

9306 Harford Road, Parkville MD

KIJK MET ONS MEE:

cityseeker.com