Southport Raw Bar

"To Satisfy One's Seafood Cravings"

Home of legendary clams and cheese-steaks, the Southport Raw Bar has carved a niche for itself in Fort Lauderdale. Serving fresh seafood and other tasty meats and vegetarian treats throughout the year, this waterside delight has been attracting crowds since it opened in 1973. Daily specials, gratifying platters and toothsome desserts make this place a must-visit. Customers can indulge in a wide array of scrumptious food as well as various delicious cocktails, beers and wines while enjoying the beautiful waterside views and the daily live music entertainment.

Lester's Diner

"For Cakes And Coffee"

Lester's offers simple but delicious fast food in a chic and sophisticated ambiance. Attractive waitresses glide through the narrow passages, expertly balancing overflowing cups of coffee. Locals generally stop by to feast on buttermilk pancakes and grilled sandwiches. Ask for Baked Moussaka if you want to try something new, and decide whether the restaurant's not-so-popular Greek menu goes down well with you or not!

Blue Moon Fish Co.

"Seafood by the Sea"

Experience the best seafood at one of the most beautiful locations in Fort Lauderdale at none other than Blue Moon Fish Co. Dine by the gorgeous Intercoastal Waterway in the shade of the patio or indoors, in the elegant dining room. Exemplary seafood dishes and wines can be sampled from the menu. Service is top-notch and the whole dining experience is worth every buck spent.

Rustic Inn

"For Garlic Crab Deliciousness"

Rustic Inn is a seafood restaurant located near the airport, and it boasts some of the freshest seafood in Fort Lauderdale. This restaurant has been welcoming seafood lovers since the 1950s. However, while delicious treats like fried fish, shrimp, mussels and more are on the menu, it's the garlic crab that keeps diners coming back for more. Some of its famous patrons include celebrities like Johnny Depp, Armand Assante and Dan Marino. There is also pasta, meat and salads to choose from, but at this beloved restaurant, seafood is king.
