World Famous Parrot Lounge

"For Great Conversations"

Established in 1970, World Famous Parrot Lounge has been serving the residents of Fort Lauderdale for over 40 years. Though the ownership of the eatery has changed hands, the amicable service has not. Offering over 30 varieties of craft beer, this bar is sure to please any brew aficionado. The cheese sticks are a must-try here. Seafood lovers can take advantage of their raw bar, where you can enjoy shrimp, crabs and oysters. This lounge offers a casual ambiance that has made it a favorite among locals.

Tap 42

"Best Craft Beer"

With a repertoire of 51 taps, Tap42 is Fort Lauderdale's chief champion of beer. Their impressive selection features American brews and ales alongside premium spirits and inventive concoctions. They pride themselves on the city's only craft beer cocktail list, blending brews with homemade syrups and fresh herbs. Bar fare is a mix of classics including chicken wings, meatballs, burgers, seared scallops, grilled salmon, crispy calamari, mussels and fries.

The Field Irish Pub & Eatery

"Vintage Irish pub"

Entering The Field Irish Pub and Eatery transports you directly to Ireland. The pub's farmhouse-like interior includes a chimney stack and fireplace that exude a rustic country charm. Although this place is known for offering the finest Guinness in the state, they also cater to non-beer drinkers with a well-stocked bar and popular favorites from American cuisine. Live acts and themed nights get the party started.
