Dreamland Barbecue

"Traditional & Famous BBQ in Southside"

This popular rib joint originated in Tuscaloosa and became nationally famous before it opened this location in Southside near UAB and Five Points South. It's a typical barbecue restaurant, with simple tables and photos of football coaches and players on the walls. There are some side items on the menu, but you can't come here to eat and no order the Barbecue Pork Ribs. Dreamland lives up to its slogan, "Ain't nothin like 'em nowhere."

Leo and Susie's Famous Green Top Bar-B-Q

"Lip-Smacking Goodness"

An institution in itself, the Green Top BBQ is an iconic restaurant in Alabama. Standing firm on its ground since 1950's, this restaurant proclaims to serve the best barbecue on planet Earth. Located in the small city of Dora, Green Top serves some amazing barbecue dishes, that are hard to find anywhere else. The Alabama-style chicken sandwich, with white sauce is a signature dish of Green Top; and has seen customers coming over the years, just to taste this amazing preparation. For a mere USD4.95, you get this wholesome sandwich, which can be gulped down with a large cola or beer. Bar-B-Que Plate, Smoked Chicken Plate and Loaded Bacon Potato are some other delicacies that are highly recommended on their menu.
