The Martine Inn

"Pure Elegance"

'Country Inns Magazine' called this century-old Victorian mansion one of America's top 12 B&Bs. In each of the rooms you can bask in the sheer elegance of Victorian antiquity with views of the crashing waves. Here you will truly feel like a patron at the turn of the 20th Century. Depending on which of the designer rooms you go for, you could get a wood-burning fireplace, a clawfoot tub, stunning Victorian dinner sets or a walnut armoire. The gorgeous Eastlake bedroom suites are furnished in the style of the 1870s. This is a spectacular place for a romantic getaway. Rates are subject to change at anytime. See website for up-to-date info.

The Old St Angela Inn

"Right On the Water"

This shingle-style craftsman home was built around the turn of the last century and is a hop, skip, and jump away from the water in Pacific Grove. There is a grand fireplace in the living room, where you will also find antiques and teddy bears. The rooms themselves are done in vintage craftsman-style with wainscoting and plate rails. The service is impeccable here and the proprietors go out of their way to help you with reservations or planning visits to nearby attractions such as the aquarium. The picturesque Old St. Angela Inn has New England-style hospitality; check out the website or call for more information.

Centrella Inn

"Historic Landmark"

With suites, separate cottages and a spectacular garden, this inn, which is also a historic landmark, is perfect for a cozy, relaxing or romantic stay. The cottages and the large, blue Victorian house on the corner offer deluxe rooms with fireplaces as well as a wet bar. The regular rooms are light and airy with lots of decorations. This is great place to "get away from it all" while still being right next to it all. See website for photos, online reservations, innkeeper bios, and more on the site's history.
