"Contemporary Delights"

Full of options, the Windy Ridge Cafe is great for lunch, dinner, or Sunday brunch. The food is familiar yet with little touches to add a little bit of flair. For lunch try the Southwestern Corn Chowder or the Baked Ziti, or for dinner the Almond and Herb Crusted Trout. Top your meal off with an after dinner drink or indulge in a Lemon Blackberry Float. Its relaxing and laid back setting is perfect for catching up with old friends or enjoying a meal after a hard day of physical activity. It is open in the evenings from 5pm, Monday to Saturday.

The Farm

"A Farm-to-Table Experience"

Located at Canyons Village, The Farm is a rather aptly named restaurant, for what it offers you is American cuisine crafted from the freshest seasonal local produce. You can sit within the cozy eatery or out on the patio and enjoy some wonderful food and drinks. Although not the cheapest dining option in the area, the food and service make it well worth the price. A typical meal begins with appetizers like roasted pork belly and onion and oxtail soup. Then come mains like cassoulet of lamb with boudin blanc and shelling beans, which can be perfectly complemented with something from the wine selection.
