Wavs

"Drop the Beat!"

WAVS at the Maharani Palace hotel is one of the city's top nightlife destinations. Though small, accommodating up to 110 people, the club is well equipped with state-of-the-art sound systems that ensure the party keeps on going. With comfortable private areas, a happening dance floor and a great drinks menu, this Sindhi Camp club is a great place to blow off some steam with friends when visiting the Pink City. The chic décor, delicious eats, and bass-thumping beats combine to make an evening at WAVS one to remember. The theme is usually Bollywood so go ahead and bring your best bhangra moves to this party.

Amigos

"Mexico in Jaipur"

A luscious drink and lip smacking finger food is all one needs to escape the banalities of a set routine. And at Amigos, this is made more alluring by the snazzy ambiance reflecting a Mexican theme. This hip bar at the Hotel Om Tower presents an assorted array of fresh salads accompanied by an impressive selection of spirits. Guests are kept entertained with popular TV shows and sports tournaments aired on the plasma screens. Their discotheque is indeed the place to head to for a great night out of socializing and dancing.
