Maruti Guest House

"Live Like An Indian"

Located fairly close to the famous Assi Ghat is the family-run Maruti Guest House headed by the patriarch Mr. Tripathi who manages the place along with his charming wife. This guest house is strictly for those who want a deeper connection with the Indian way of life and not just a superficial touristy impression. Their rooftop restaurant does some superb renditions of Kashmiri biryanis, pancakes and stuffed potato. The owner is known to draw his guests a little map of the area to help them get acclimatized to the surroundings, rituals, scams, practices and eating options around. Although cheaper options are available in the area, Maruti has carved a niche for itself and continues to be a preferred choice with backpackers and artists.
