John's Grill

"With Mystery And Intrigue"

This historic restaurant has been serving loyal patrons and celebrities alike since 1908. Deeply rooted in San Francisco history, it holds a position in literary history as well. Try one of the dishes featured in Gourmet Magazine such as Chicken Jerusalem or Oyster Wellington. The wine list, featuring California selections, is serviceable with a good bottle. ## Perry's on Union Street

"Steaks & Seafood"

Perry's has been dedicated to serving San Franciscans well-executed, simple cuisine for over 40 years. The casual ambiance and friendly service underscore the restaurant's roots as a local hangout during San Francisco's hippie movement, and their commitment to high-quality fare has allowed the restaurant to endure to this day. Lobster Madness keeps crowds pouring in for the lobster special on Wednesday nights, which is probably one of the best meal deals in town. ## Boulevard

"SF's Fine-Dining Favorite"

Boulevard, launched by Nancy Oakes in 1993, has since been at the forefront of the San Franciscan dining scene with accolades aplenty to prove. The Embarcadero institution is a definite must visit when in the waterfront area. The historic Audiffred Building it calls home was the lone survivor in the aftermath of the 1906 earthquake. American regional cuisine is inventive without being pretentious and boasts French culinary influences. Co-restaurateur Pat Kuleto is the creative force behind the exceptional design that is inspired by France's Belle Époque period of the late 1800s. The menu includes fabulous and original concoctions, with particularly excellent seafood entrees like Ahi tuna tartare and Dungeness crab fritters. Linger over dinner with a glass of wine, and bask in the lovely ambiance while indulging in a decadent dessert.

Bimbo's 365 Club

"Door Retro Omgeven Concert Locatie"

De retro luxe van het interieur van de Bimbo's 365 Club draagt bij aan het onverwachte karakter van welke act er toevallig op het podium staat die avond. Of het nou een lokale surfbare outfit, of een groot label superster op een internationale tour is. De afgelopen publiekstrekkingen waren onder andere Detroit Cobras, the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, They Might Be Giants, Seu Jorge, Aimee Mann and the Flaming Lips. Wekelijkse dansavonden vullen de dansvloer met Charleston-ing-zoot-suiters, die de originele pluche crimson gordijnen accentueren die nog stammen uit de opening van Bimbo in 1931.
