Little Star Pizza

"Vijfsterren Pizzas"

Hou je van authentieke knapperige Chicago pizza? Deze hippe, frisse plek heeft eten met een prikkelende smaak om zelfs de meest afgematte pizzaeter enthousiast te maken. Probeer de Mediterraanse Kip Pizza, met, zoals je al raad, kippenborst, artisjokharten, pepers, olijven, ui en feta kaas. Of probeer de veregartische pizza die er meteen voor zorgt dat je vegetarisch wordt. Little Star biedt ook een dunne bodem, die eerlijk gezegd net zo goed zijn als de ongelooflijke diepe borden waar ze beroemd om zijn geworden. Met minimalistisch decor en een jukebox, zal Little Star je verslaafd maken. Er zit ook een filiaal in het Mission District.

Café de la Presse

"Chic & Tasty"

Right by the gates of Chinatown you'll find this Gallic cafe that's a dead ringer for the kind that populate those quaint little side streets just off the Rue Rivoli. It is chic in a determined, downscale way with half of the already cramped floor space given over to French newspapers and periodicals. The centrally located counter jockeys for position with the closely packed tables and chairs. Huge windows alleviate the claustrophobia and the wait staff, conducting serious conversations in rapid-fire French, take you to a different hemisphere. The food can, too. It is upscale cafe fare, heavy on sandwiches, soups (gratinee, but of course) and salads. The desserts change daily and are never less than scrumptious. The crowd is mostly young, sometimes European, and always the height of hip.

Garaje

"Great Fish Tacos"

This eatery is hidden away so well, you're likely to walk right past it unless you know it's there. Lunchtime brings crowds of people to Garaje, where tacos, zapatos (grilled, pressed burritos) and other Mexican specialties are served with a California flair. The specialty here is fish tacos, from the seared tuna and avocado taco to the beer-battered tilapia taco with chipotle aioli. If you don't feel like fish, their burger and veggie burger have garnered rave reviews from regulars. They have a well-curated selection of craft beers on tap to go with your meal. Come prepared with cash, since they don't take credit cards.

Pork Store Café

"For The Best In Bacon"

They say that breakfast is the most important meal of the day, so then it is logical to do breakfast right. To experience this, the Pork Store Café is a place to be. Though small in dimension, the food here is huge. Every plate served is colossal, and, more importantly, delicious. It touts lots of meat on the menu (it's called the Pork Store, after all.) Ham, bacon, sausage, chops, all served with eggs, potatoes, toast and endless cups of strong coffee is served up by the friendly wait staff. If you are not feeling carnivorous, order a short stack of pancakes, omelet, French toast, or a veggie and tofu scramble. Sit at a window table or choose a stool at the counter, where you can watch all that fabulous food being prepared.
