Natural History Museum Ice Rink

"Glide Away to Glory"

Spend your winters in London by skating away at the enchanting ice rink at the Natural History Museum. This vast skating arena, spread across 10,226 square feet (950 square meters), opens every year from November to January. If you are a newbie to this sport, you can book a session with the 'ice marshal' who will help improve your skills. When your bodies begin freezing and feet start aching, settle down at the warm cafe bar gorging on their delicious snacks along with a hot beverage.
