Spa to You

"Luxurious Pampering"

Spa to You, at the London Hilton on Park Lane, redefines luxury with a range of spa treatments from all over the world. Allow yourself to be pampered by the spa's experienced and well-trained therapists for an experience that is sure to leave you feeling as good as new. Your comfort, well-being and utter delight are of the utmost importance, and only the very best products and treatments are used to achieve this. From a 90-minute Anti-Jet-Lag package to refresh you after a long flight, to the uber-indulgent gold massage, Spa to You offers a range of treatments with something to suit every need. The Japanese-Nightingale Dropping Facial is an especially intriguing offer, drawing inspiration from the age-old Japanese tradition of using nightingale droppings as a beauty treatment. The droppings of a nightingale are rich in enzymes that are known for their rejuvenating properties, and were once favored by Geishas and Kabuki actors. This and other such indulgent treatments, packages and rituals are on offer at Spa to You.
