Little Wing Pizzeria

"All About Pizza"

Little Wing Pizzeria has four outlets across Belfast, each serving delicious New York style pizzas. This restaurant on Ann Street is quite popular, mainly due to its friendly and quick service, and the varieties of pizza on offer. Pick a classic margherita, or go for something more flavorful such as the Napoli salsiccia or the formaggi caprini. One can also try their insalata, pasta, lasagna or salads, but pizza remains the main draw here.

Pizza Express

"Chic and Cheerful Outlet"

The Pizza Express restaurants prove that you don't have to give up on sophistication just because you're a chain. Located in the heart of Belfast, this Pizza Express is fully licensed, where you can enjoy delicious pizzas with the family. They are cooked in the open kitchen by dough-tossing chefs, and are guaranteed to be fresh and devoid of production-line plasticity. There's a good selection of salads and pasta dishes, including many vegetarian options. And it's all brought to you at extremely reasonable prices.

Goodfellas Restaurant & Pizzeria

"Pizza Heaven"

Goodfellas Restaurant & Pizzeria, located in the Andersontown neighborhood of Belfast is a great place to get a taste of a variety of pizzas as well as other Italian delicacies while in the city. This restaurant enjoys the patronage of pretty much everyone, right from students of the nearby university to working professionals and families with kids. Their pizzas are absolutely sublime and range from Mexican and European styles, to the traditional Italian of course. Their chicken dishes, spaghetti and lasagna are worth a try as well. The prices are an absolute steal.
