

"Best Secondhand Shops in Rome"

Gecreëerd door : Cityseeker

📍 7 Locaties in uw favorieten

📷 by Abee5 ©

Open Door Bookshop

"The Glory of Old Books"

There is a comforting smell of old books, that pacifies and relaxes the mind. The yellowed pages, faint lettering and creamy smoothness of the pages are a pleasure to the book-lover. The Open Door Bookshop provides a similar experience with its vast collection of second-hand books. Dealing in books since 1976, the bookstore has garnered quite a few loyalists who browse through its stock in search of prized labels. One can also sell our collection to the store at reasonable prices.

☎ +39 06 589 6478

🌐 www.books-in-italy.com/

✉ opendoor@books-in-italy.com

📍 Via Della Lungaretta 23, Rome

📷 by OrnaW ©

Mado

"Old Treasures"

If you have a passion for vintage clothing and can find ways to make use of apparel and accessories others no longer seem to want, then Mado is perfect for you. The racks at this store are choc-a-bloc with funky secondhand clothes that are sure to add a chic new touch to your wardrobe. The collection of dresses is wonderful, and you will surely be able to carry off a Lindy Hop dress from the '50s with style.

📍 Via del Governo Vecchio 89/a, Rome

📷 by arembowski ©

Antica Libreria Cascianelli

"Bookworm Heaven"

This bookshop is perfect for students and collectors of rare titles, where it is possible to find historic texts hard to locate in most other stores. The texts are well cared for and come from private collections or from the shop owner's own research. He will also recommend trustworthy book restorers to clients. Contemporary books on historical themes are also on sale here.

☎ +39 06 6880 2806

🌐 www.turismoroma.it/en/places/antica-libreria-cascianelli-libreria-antiquaria-dal-1850

✉ cascianelli@mclink.com

📍 Largo Febo 14/16, Rome

📷 by ~Brenda~ ©
📍 Largo della Fontanella di Borghese, Rome

Mercato Delle Stampe

"Book Streets"

Mercato Delle Stampe is the place to visit for the book worms. They offer prints, magazines, engravings, and classic books, and lots more variety. Bargain as much as you can for the best deals. Search enough, and you could be lucky with some music and architectural engravings.

Abiti Usati

"Rare Shopping!"

Abiti Usati is one place that you will find all the vintage items that are rare collectables truly worth purchasing. The styles and variety of clothes available at such low prices are unique and worth owning. If in the city, and looking for good shopping options, a visit here is a must!

+39 06 6830 7105

Via del Governo Vecchio 35, Rome

Sempre Verde

"Style Chic"

Girls will sure love this place! Sempre Verde offers all the street style looks and vintage clothing, that add to the variety of your wardrobe. The clothes are carefully styled and you will be surprise with the collections. All this and lots more available at surprising low and convenient prices.

Via del Governo Vecchio 26, Rome

IBS

"Beautiful & Spacious Bookshop"

This extremely large bookshop, spread over many floors, has sections devoted to all kinds of books. The upper floor is dedicated to the humanities such as psychology, philosophy and medicine. The music department comprises of a huge collection of books on the subject and customers can also hear the latest CDs. The basement, housing a variety o paperbacks, is a place that fiction lovers should explore. There is also a good coffee shop on the top floor where you can relax while leafing through your purchases. This library also host events that will be enjoyed by the readers, like book signing or author speeches.

by arembowski

+39 06 488 5405

negozi.libraccio.it/negozi/roma/libraccio-roma

roma@libraccio.it

Via Nazionale 254/225, Rome

KIJK MET ONS MEE:

cityseeker.com