Boadas Cocktail Bar

"Geweldige Variatie en Geschiedenis"

Boadas Coctail Bar, gelegen in het midden van Las Ramblas, werd geopend door de Cubaan Miguel Boadas, in de jaren veertig, en wordt nu gerund door zijn dochter Maria Dolores. Ondanks de toeristische lokatie heeft deze bar, zonder tafels, de originele charme weten te behouden. Je kan aan de bar staan en iets bestellen van de lange coctailijst of een van de specials proberen die uitgevonden zijn door Miguel Boadas zelf. Veel van deze coctails zijn een eerbetoon aan fictieve personages of echte personen zoals Sofia Loren, Joan Miro en Frankenstein, terwijl anderen vernoemd zijn naar plaatsen in Barcelona.

Milk

"Drinking Like Regals"

A gem in the chic neighborhood of El Barri Gotic, Milk has established itself as one of the top nightlife destinations in the vibrant city. Stepping into this cocktail tavern is like taking a trip back in time to the English gentlemen's clubs of the 18th century. The entire seating room is decorated with a touch of antiquity, right from the gilded mirrors to the Middle-eastern accents. Locals usually come here to splurge and indulge, whether it is the eccentric cocktails and spirits or the contemporary local fare. The cocktail list has a range of vintage and new drinks; and the wine list explores reds, whites and the favored Cava. Surprisingly, the place gets filled up even post-dawn with those looking for hangover-cures and lazy brunches.
