Punto BCN

"Have A Gay Ol' Time!"

This two-story bar is popular among men of all ages, (women are always welcome as well) who can be found here in the evening happily gulping down their drinks. While the lower level features a regular bar and no dining area, the upper level has tables where you hang out with your friends. During the evening, the music played here tends to bit soothing and mystical. However after ten in the night it becomes more peppy. Visiting this place on Wednesdays is a good idea, since you can avail of the happy hour where a large variety of snacks are on the platter. Occasionally, free passes to Arena are also handed out, since that establishment has the same owners as this place.
