Balalaika

"Happening Jazz Venue"

Frankfurt's night scene is mostly dominated by suave and trendy cocktail bars, but if that is not your scene and you're looking for something edgier and retro then head to Sachsenhausen where you will find Balalaika. In operation since 1968, this live music club was opened by American jazz singer Anita Honis. The cozy venue carries a unique charm magnified by the jazz and blues. Anita herself takes to the stage occasionally to serenade the crowd of expats and locals. For the regular line-up schedule keep a tab on their Facebook page.

Clubkeller

"Club And Bar"

Clubkeller is housed in a cellar. The ambiance is quite intimate with an easy-going crowd walking in all the time. It does have a bar as well where beer is served in plenty. The music played here differs from techno to pop and so on. The lighting helps to perpetuate a cozy atmosphere. Playing host to well-known and upcoming bands and musicians, this is a great place to catch really good gigs and concerts. Also a great place to meet the 'in' crowd of Frankfurt. Check the website for a complete list of events.

Batschkapp

"Live Rock & Pop Optredens"

Batschkapp staat al bijna 20 jaar in de markt als populaire locatie voor pop- en rockconcerten en het heeft dan ook veel van zijn rivalen overleefd. Ook andere muziekstijlen vindt u hier terug zoals heavy metal, Indie, crossover en hiphop. Zorg ervoor dat u uw balpen of andere soortgelijke voorwerpen thuislaat; de bewakers nemen veiligheid serieus en staan erom bekend zelfs nagelvijlen in te nemen. Er zijn populaire clubavonden met een mengeling van muziekstijlen bij Batschkapp.
