

"Best Concerts in Boston"

Gecreëerd door : Cityseeker

📍 3 Locaties in uw favorieten

📷 by Rhododendrites ©

Rockland Trust Bank Pavilion

"Waterfront Pavilion"

This Boston performance venue is an open-air amphitheater that has a seating capacity for 5000 persons. The original venue was located on Fan Pier but was squeezed out due to development projects in that area. Between its relocation and a few name changes, it continues to remain one of the city's most iconic arenas. Summer concerts feature top names in the entertainment business such as the Beach Boys, The Temptations and Donna Summer.

☎ +1 617 728 1600

💻 www.bostonpavilion.net/

📍 290 Northern Avenue, Boston MA

📷 by Digfareenough ©

Symphony Hall

"Renowned Concert Hall"

Home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, this impressive structure is known as one of the world's premier concert halls. Massive chandeliers hanging from the ceiling and replicas of Greek and Roman statues lining the walls gives it a medieval look. The BSO and Pops perform here during winter. They are often joined by celebrity conductors, soloists and singers. Symphony Hall also hosts many visiting orchestras and popular performers.

☎ +1 617 266 1492

💻 www.bso.org/

✉ CustomerService@bso.org

📍 301 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston MA

📷 by Daniel Hartwig ©

New England Conservatory

"Opulent Musical Ambiance"

The New England Conservatory is one of the oldest music institutions in the country. They offer an array of graduation and post-graduation degrees and courses every year. The conservatory comprises of three huge buildings. The Jordan Hall is the central performing space in the complex. The splendid decor of the hall and the building is reminiscent of the olden times and creates the perfect ambiance for musical performances.

☎ +1 617 585 1100

💻 necmusic.edu/

📍 290 Huntington Avenue, Boston MA

KIJK MET ONS MEE:

cityseeker.com