The St. Regis Washington D.C.

"Ornate Downtown Hotel"

St. Regis Hotel Washington, DC opened in 1926 and has been host to political figures and royalty ever since. Designed in the Italian Renaissance fashion, it is exquisitely furnished. Rooms feature both classic and modern amenities from Italian marble baths to fax machines. Each looks like it could easily be a guest room in some foreign dignitary's French chateau. The hotel is located near the White House and the National Mall. Though the rooms are a tad steep in the price department, the luxury and class they promise is unmatched.

Willard InterContinental Washington

"Beaux-Arts Splendor"

Set along a wide boulevard, the Willard Inter-Continental is among the most splendid and renowned hotels. Lincoln resided here before he assumed the presidency, as have other presidents. But history and politics are overshadowed by the splendor of the hotel itself. Graced with mosaics, marble, fabulous chandeliers, and majestic columns, the building offers unmatched elegance. The rooms are far from cheap, but if you opt to stay here, you will experience the ultimate luxury.
