Tabard Inn Bar

"Victorian Magic"

Tabard Inn Bar is located within Hotel Tabard Inn. Its decor is reminiscent of the early 20th Century, replete with bookshelves lined with heavy volumes, quaint fireplaces, multi-colored leather bar stools and wooden paneling. Its charming patio boasts ornamental chairs placed in a garden with brick walls camouflaged by thick ivy. Unwind with creative cocktails like Clarissa, a blend of Spanish Cava, Fresh Lime, Chambord, St. Germain and Milagro Silver Tequila. Other cocktails include their gin-infused Floradora and whiskey-based Sazerac. Guests can also enjoy a premium selection of Single Malt Scotch, Port And Sherry, Mezcal and American Whiskey. Their drinks are accompanied by light snacks such as Mini Crab Cakes and Tabard Pickle Plate.

Lincoln

"The Legacy of Lincoln"

Lincoln is more than just an American restaurant, it celebrates the very spirit of the United States. It was the restaurant of choice for both Mitt Romney and Barack Obama during their presidential campaigns. It has also received numerous awards for its happy hours. Its flooring is constructed from antique wood dotted by a mosaic of a million pennies. Its walls exhibit pop art and a painting of the American flag. Their Presidential Tasting Menu offers the preferred dishes of Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson and George Washington. Savor items like Winter Turkey Salad, Maryland Smoked Quail and Chicken Pot Pie. Do not miss their cocktails such as the 1944 Mai Tai and Gettysburg Address.

The St. Regis Washington D.C.

"Ornate Downtown Hotel"

St. Regis Hotel Washington, DC opened in 1926 and has been host to political figures and royalty ever since. Designed in the Italian Renaissance fashion, it is exquisitely furnished. Rooms feature both classic and modern amenities from Italian marble baths to fax machines. Each looks like it could easily be a guest room in some foreign dignitary's French chateau. The hotel is located near the White House and the National Mall. Though the rooms are a tad steep in the price department, the luxury and class they promise is unmatched.

Round Robin Bar

"Where Presidents Drank"

Presidents Warren G. Harding and Abraham Lincoln and novelist Charles Dickens are but a few of the famous people who have stopped by the elegant Round Robin Bar. It once served as the parlor where fine ladies withdrew while the gentlemen enjoyed their brandy and cigars in the bar. Located inside the Willard hotel, the bar still serves classic cocktails to discerning guests.

Willard InterContinental Washington

"Beaux-Arts Splendor"

Set along a wide boulevard, the Willard Inter-Continental is among the most splendid and renowned hotels. Lincoln resided here before he assumed the presidency, as have other presidents. But history and politics are overshadowed by the splendor of the hotel itself. Graced with mosaics, marble, fabulous chandeliers, and majestic columns, the building offers unmatched elegance. The rooms are far from cheap, but if you opt to stay here, you will experience the ultimate luxury.

Omni Shoreham Hotel

"Landmark Hotel"

Set in scenic Rock Creek Park, the Omni Shoreham Hotel has welcomed dignitaries from around the world since its opening in 1930. Surrounded by eleven acres of parkland, it is a wonderful place to relax but still be in the midst of the city. The fine restaurants of Woodley Park are just a block away and the Adams-Morgan neighborhood, with its many ethnic eateries, is close by as well. The National Zoo is a short walk from the hotel.

The Monocle Restaurant on Capitol Hill

"Where Senators Dine"

This restaurant, just a few minutes from the Senate side of the Capitol, attracts a fair number of politicians. Styled after a saloon, but very upscale in its rendition, The Monocle has a handsome bar with wood-and-brass accents. It is open to the public only during the week; on weekends it is reserved for private parties. American fare is served here, with seafood and steaks dominating the menu. A variety of pasta entrees are also offered, dressed in light sauces.
