Rasika

"Contemporary Indian Food"

Rasika combines old and new in a most striking manner. So grab a table and order up a selection of your favorites, and rest assured that they'll be made with ingredients fresher and more flavorful than at your dingy neighborhood joint. After you dine, settle into the lounge and while away the rest of the night with a cocktail or four.

Curry Mantra

"Maharaja Buffet!"

Curry Mantra is not only about delicious Indian curries, it is about all Indian cuisine. Done up in warm red and orange hues, the restaurant has an inviting ambiance that you will immediately like. The menu is vast featuring the many cuisines of India ranging from tandoori bread to biryanis, curries to thalis (prix fixe menu), non vegetarian to vegetarian and desserts to non-alcoholic beverages. Try the weekend brunch buffet called the weekend Maharaja and you will feel like you have been to a royal banquet.
