Blue Martini

"Try the Blue Martini"

Blue Martini is a nice nightclub and bar that has both DJs and live musicians. Along with a full bar there are tapas, so you can have a midnight snack after you work up an appetite dancing. If you would rather just have a drink while talking to your friends, step to the outside patio. Try the Blue Martini, it has Finlandia vodka, cointreau, blue curacao, sour mix and orange juice with a glow stick. Delicious, but expensive.

Mango's Tropical Cafe

"Animal Print Extravaganza"

This is beach-front dining with a tropical theme. The café menu features island-inspired lunch and dinner entrees. The wait staff is definitely an attraction, sporting skin-tight, leopard-print uniforms. The occasional group dance routine keeps things interesting for diners and passers-by alike. Things really heat up around 9p, when a live band plays upbeat Latin music. It can be hard to manoeuvre past the businessmen and tourists who come to Mango's Tropical Cafe to down shots, so come early.
