

"Best Water Sports in Los Angeles"

Gecreëerd door : Cityseeker

📍 8 Locaties in uw favorieten

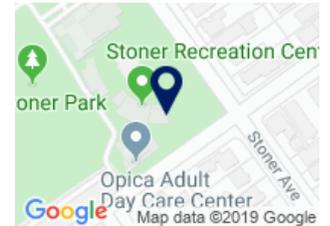

📷 by PublicDomainPictures ©

Stoner Park Splash Park

"More Than Just a Pool"

This aquatic park is run by the city of Los Angeles. More than just your average public pool, the Stoner Park Splash Park is like a playground for adults and children alike. Perfect for those hot California days, this swim center features a four foot wading pool, spray guns, mushroom shaped fountains, and perhaps best of all, a swirling water slide. Admittance is easy on the wallet too, making it a budget friendly activity for the whole family to enjoy together.

☎ +1 310 575 8286

🌐 www.laparks.org/dos/aquatic/facilities/stonerParkPool.htm

📍 1835 Stoner Avenue, Los Angeles CA

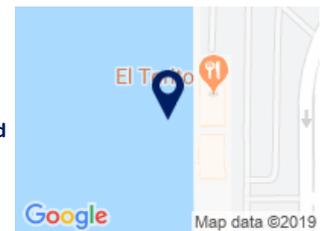

📷 by Public Domain ©

☎ +1 310 306 4444

Marina del Rey Boat Rentals

"Boat Rentals"

If you're eager to get out on the water but you'd prefer to avoid the guided marine excursions, why not rent a boat at Marina del Rey Boat Rentals? You don't have to be an experienced sailor to take advantage of this service - they rent out everything from kayaks, pedal boats and jet skis to powerboats and sailboats. Enjoy the open ocean with friends and family.

🌐 marinadelreyboatrentals.com/ ✉ info@mdrboatrentals.com

📍 13719 Fiji Way, Marina del Rey CA

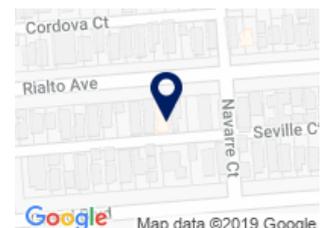

📷 by Public Domain ©

☎ +1 323 316 8108

Aloha Brothers Surf Lessons

"Riding Those California Waves"

Feel the sun on your back, and wipe the water from your eyes as you prepare to pop up on your board and ride the wave during a lesson with Aloha Brothers Surf Lessons. This little Venice business is run by passionate individuals who live, eat and breath surfing. Owned and operated by Nick Fowler, guests will get a one-on-one, or private group lesson with him (or another instructor) and learn the basics of the sport or brush up their skills with some quick tips. A quintessential California experience, surfing lessons in sunny Los Angeles is a must.

🌐 www.alohabrothers.surf/ ✉ NickFowler9@gmail.com

📍 528 Rialto Avenue, Venice CA

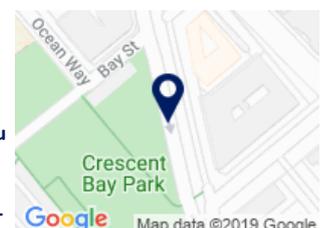

📷 by Public Domain ©

Go Surf LA

"Quintessential California Sport"

Specializing in the quintessential California sport, Go Surf LA will have you hanging ten in no time. Whether you're a beginner or just looking for some tips to improve your ride, this surf school will have you feeling at ease in the water with your new found knowledge. Both wetsuits and soft-topped surfboards are included in your lesson price along with a 90-minute group session. After a few on-land instructions, students will wade out into the water at the sandy bottom beach of Santa Monica Beach, and ride their first wave. Stand up paddle board, or SUP, lessons are also available for those looking for a more leisurely ocean experience.

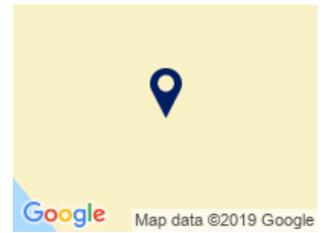

by Alexander Migl

Santa Monica State Beach

"Popular City Beach"

Santa Monica's most prized possession, this Southern Californian waterfront state park is the closest landmark to the iconic Santa Monica Pier and Third Street Promenade. Equipped with modern amenities such as volleyball courts, serene picnic spots and scenic swimming zones, this golden-sand landscape houses something that sets it apart from everything else in the vicinity: Muscle Beach, the mecca for bodybuilding exhibitions and gymnastic presentations. A sunbather's heaven, the beach also seems to be a magnet for themed special events like the world-famous Cirque du Soleil, which transforms the place into a dynamo of energy, music and vivid colors. The Santa Monica Ferris Wheel is by far the state park's most noticeable attraction.

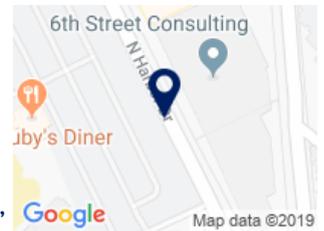

by Public Domain

Redondo Sportfishing

"Get to the Fish Quick"

Offering a variety of fishing trips including half-day, full-day and multi-day excursions, this company prides itself on getting its customers to the prime fishing spots in less than a half-hour. Frequenting well-stocked fishing grounds, its anglers commonly catch fish that include halibut, bass, yellowtail, barracuda and cod. In addition to offering fishing trips, Redondo Sportfishing also offers whale-watching voyages, charter trips and nature tours aboard its boats.

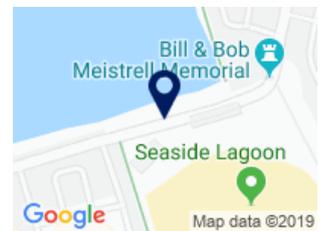

by Public Domain

Seaside Lagoon

"Bringing the Ocean to You"

The Seaside Lagoon is a saltwater lagoon whose water comes from the ocean and is later chlorinated then dechlorinated to ensure clean the lagoon only uses clean saltwater. Besides swimming, you can play volleyball, enjoy a treat at one of the snack bars, build a sandcastle, or simply lounge around in the grassy area. Trained lifeguards are always on standby so the area is deemed safe at any given time.

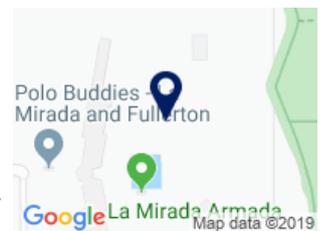

by jarmoluk

Splash! La Mirada Regional Aquatics Center

"Water Park Family Fun"

Spanning 18 acres, this sprawling water park is popular spots for families and kids throughout the year thanks to the mild Los Angeles weather. The Splash! La Mirada Regional Aquatics Center is a great way to beat the heat and wont break the bank, Kids can race around in Buccaneer Bay where they'll cruise down one of the three water slides and splash into the pool, laze along the flowing river channel, stomp on the splash pad as it squirts water, or explore the interactive pirate structure. On onsite snack bar will feed famished kids and family members, so you can stay and play all day long.

KIJK MET ONS MEE:

cityseeker.com

Algemene voorwaarden | PRIVACYBELEID | API | CONTACTEER ONS | Auteursrecht 2019 CITYSEEKER