

"Best Antiques in Vienna"

Criado por : Cityseeker

📍 5 Localizações indicadas

📷 by Gugerell ©

Floh Markt

"Haggler's Dream"

If your idea of a perfect outing is haggling down prices as unique flea markets, you have met your match with the Floh Markt near the Naschmarkt and the Kettenbrückengasse. The flea market is set-up with vendors and crafters from all walks of life, some selling quality, authentic wares while others try to convince you their knock-offs are the real deal. The market street is reminiscent of an Eastern European gypsy market which adds to its charm and excitement. From books to antiques to knock-off designer handbags, you can leave here with anything under the sun!

🌐 www.flohmarkt.at/

📍 Linke Wienzeile, Viena

📷 by Gryffindor ©

Dorotheum

"Grand Old Dame Of Auction"

Established by Emperor Joseph I in 1707, Dorotheum is among the oldest auction houses in the world. This Viennese institution is not only a beautiful building to look at with its neo-classical architecture, it is also a must visit for antique lovers. With interiors done by the famous Luigi Blau, this place is a trendy setting today with stunning antique elements and you will find some of the best contemporary and old art forms in the house. This grand old auction house art objects, jewelry and furniture from different eras which can be viewed six days a week. This where you can also buy these interesting pieces.

☎ +43 1 51 5600

🌐 www.dorotheum.com/

✉ kundendienst@dorotheum.at

📍 Dorotheergasse 17, Viena

📷 by Free-Photos ©

Habari

"Made In Africa"

"Habari" is the Swahili word meaning "Do you have a story?" and every piece on display at this specialty boutique has one. It features a unique collection of furniture and home decor with African influences and tribal accents etched into its designs and patterns. In addition, ethnic jewelry, eclectically-printed crockery and linen made from natural fibers from Tanzania and Cameroon are up for sale. Pick from interesting, one-of-a-kind artifacts from Zimbabwe, Congo and Mali that double up as great gifts and souvenirs.

☎ +43 1 586 2340

🌐 www.habari.at/

✉ info@habari.at

📍 Theobaldgasse 16, Viena

City Antik- Oliver Hunter

"Home Decor and Priceless Antiques"

If you have redecorated your abode and are finding it hard to get your hands on that one missing piece of antique that you want to keep in your living room, the City Antik might be the answer for you. This antiques shop is very well known in local Vienna for their unique collection of furniture and certain home décor pieces that will add a distinct vibe to the room. Their collection of vases and chandeliers will give any room the royal feel it deserves.

+43 1 513 6809

www.city-antik.at/

oliver.hunter@chello.at

Neubaugasse 40, Viena

by szczepazu ©

Nostalgie Corner

"Nostalgic Visit"

The word nostalgia is synonymous with things from the past that certainly evoke fond memories and good emotions and one such place that really takes this into consideration is the Nostalgie Corner. Located in Vienna, this store is a unique concept store with their own collection of furniture, antiques, arts, jewelry, home décor, toys, teddy bears, old watches, ceramics etc. This place is everything old and unique and thus is very popular among collectors.

+43 1 920 1920

www.nostalgiecorner.at/

wolf@nostalgiecorner.at

Gentzgasse 121, Viena

JUNTE-SE A NÓS À:

cityseeker.com