

"Best for Families in Johannesburg"

Criado por : Cityseeker

📍 5 Localizações indicadas

📷 by "Rachel Park on Unsplash" on Unsplash ©

Wimpy

"Delectable & Affordable Meals"

Hop on to Wimpy for a wholesome breakfast before kick-starting your busy schedule. This restaurant is a part of the popular fast-food chain of restaurants and is known for introducing their signature cheese omelettes to Africa. Besides the egg preparations, the menu consists of scrumptious burgers, delectable sandwiches, onion rings and more and can be accompanied with refreshing coffee, milkshakes and other beverages. Your kids can accompany you for a meal here as this is a family friendly restaurant and has a special menu for your little ones. Its easy-on-pocket menu and prompt service make this one of the popular spots of the locals for a quick and tasty meal.

☎ +27 11 834 4133

🌐 www.wimpy.co.za/

✉ info@wimpy.co.za

📍 Pritchardt Street, Sage Centre, Johannesburg

📷 by DesignNPrint ©

Panettone Café

"Family Fun"

Panettone Café is a family-friendly restaurant with a great play area and spacious alfresco seating. The casual eatery is ideal for groups to enjoy a relaxed afternoon out after spending time at Zoo Lake park. The menu features fresh, simple international cuisine like pizzas, pastas, wraps and salads with a predominantly Mediterranean influence. Savor dishes like the Parmesan and avocado salad, Sorrento pizza, Halloumi wrap, pesto fettuccine, and fillet con rucola. Kids will love having the space to run around. There is a nice selection of fresh juices, wines by glass and bottle and soft drinks to accompany your meal.

☎ +27 11 026 3506

🌐 www.panettone.co.za/

✉ zoo@panettone.co.za

📍 Corner Cardigan and Westwold Way, Zoo Lake Sports Club, Johannesburg

📷 by SocialButterflyMMG ©

The Brazen Head

"Irish Pub"

The Brazen Head offers a unique dining experience in Johannesburg. The casual restaurant/pub blends the lively atmosphere and impeccable draft selection of a typical Irish pub with a South African spirit. The spacious restaurant opens up into a charming veranda with picnic seating and a private library where guests can browse that also hosts intimate musical performances by local artists. Sip on original concoctions like the Brazen Head Tropical Tonic or a classic with a twist like the bitter apricot whisky sour. Savor house specialties like the beef and Guinness pie or the balsamic marinated lamb chops and soak in the laid-back atmosphere. Come here on game night for heaped snack platters, pints of beer and to cheer on your favorite team. Kids are welcome during the day, and the restaurant offers a special kids menu as well.

☎ +27 11 783 6122

🌐 www.brazenhead.co.za/

✉ sandton@brazenhead.co.za

📍 Corner Linden and Anne Road, Strathavon, Johannesburg

by Riedelmeier

The River Cafe at the Sandton Field

"Sunset Dinner"

With its charming al fresco patio overlooking the verdant Sandton Field, the River Cafe is the ideal place for a leisurely family brunch or romantic evening meal. The stylish interiors are spacious and flooded with natural light creating a warm and inviting space. The international menu features everything from stone-baked pizzas, gourmet pasta, fresh salads, meze platters and more. A selection of South African wines, both by the glass and the bottle round off the menu. Savor gourmet specialties like the Greenwich blue cheese salad, creamy steak pasta, Gruyere chicken breast, grilled line fish and salmon and cream cheese open sandwich. The family-friendly restaurant welcomes kids, and offers a special children's menu. They also cater and rent out space for private parties and special occasions.

+27 11 783 2442

www.rivercafesandton.co.za/

lorraine.rivercafe@gmail.com

Corner Louise Avenue & 14th Street, Sandton Field & Study Center, Johannesburg

by joshuemd

Papachinos

"Family-Style Italian"

The original Papachinos in Fourways, Sandton, this restaurant has been a fast favorite since it opened in 2003. The casual dining spots known for its hearty comfort specials, prepared with the freshest ingredients. A personal touch is evident in each of their culinary creations, with a focus on natural and organic preparations. Share moreish appetizers like the trinchado, beef strips simmered in red wine and garlic with potato roasts, followed by the flavorful Mama Lanza, a flame-grilled cut of prime beef on a bed of rocket. If you prefer pizza, their Rozanna pizza and the Bossa Mussolini are worth a try. Save room for dessert, the affogato and the Waffle Valentino are simply divine. There is an excellent selection of wines to accompany your meal, while the kids will appreciate signature shakes like the Nutella Whiz and Bubblegum Shake and a variety of fresh juices.

+27 11 467 4460

www.papachinos.co.za/

Corner of The Straight & Witkoppen Road, Seven Decor Centre, Johannesburg

JUNTE-SE A NÓS À:
cityseeker.com