Mocha's Vintage Tea Rooms

"Antique Vibe, Tea And Coffee"

Mocha's Vintage Tea Rooms create the perfect vibe for much coveted, long conversations over pies and tea. If you're not a tea person, worry not! They also serve delicious coffee. The interiors are beautiful, with a nice touch of stained glass and ornate chandeliers. Pretty tea tables and chairs render an antiques look to the restaurant, and the overall ambience bespeaks charm. The food is freshly made in the kitchen everyday. You can enjoy cupcakes Al Fresco too-who sits inside in a beautiful Irish summer!

The Marble City Bar

"The most Photographed Pub in Ireland!"

You won't have to be a drinker to be tempted to enter the Marble City, and the magnificent exterior might well be familiar from the plethora of Irish pub front posters that have appeared of late. Once lured inside you won't be disappointed, as the interior décor is of a like standard. Bar food is available, but the emphasis is on quality liquor and lively discourse. A charming and marvelous pub!

Cafe La Coco

"Delicious Coffee And Cakes"

Cafe La Coco serves delicious cakes, pastries, brownies, and Nutella crepes. The hot chocolate is served with marshmallows, and is downright amazing. You can also try the bagels and salads. There's amazing coffee to go with the food, and what's more, the coffee is made in their very own handmade machine, by their coffee Baristas. The ambience is intimate and cozy, and the staff is pleasant and attentive.
