Art Creations

"Photographic and Painting Supplies"

Because of its eclectic mix of shops and cafes, Frazier Avenue has often been called a living work of art. How fitting for this wonderful art supply store and gift gallery. Artists of all types can find the tools of the trade in a comfortable atmosphere. The staff is friendly, knowledgeable and enjoy helping others achieve their artistic goals. Gifts of all types fill the adjacent gallery. You'll be sure to find something special for that special someone.

All Things Groovy

"Strange Trip Just Off Of Frazier"

This love-in from the 60's is your source for laid-back, eco-friendly fashions. Hemp embroidery and clothing such as sandals, wallets, Rastafarian caps and necklaces are a trademark. Beautiful Chinese sandals, Paua-shell rings, and magnetic hematite bracelets add uniqueness. Tie-dye for all ages along with imported clothing from India to Guatemala round out the most complete wardrobe. Banners representing everyone from Bob Marley to Kurt Cobain to Kiss line the walls. Numerous dreamcatchers and items for the kids like toy VW vans fill out a fully stocked selection. Hemp backpacks, vintage rock and fantasy posters and plenty of Lennon glasses make for wonderfully strange days indeed.

MoonPie General Store

"Toys & Treats"

Chattanooga is the birthplace of the legendary MoonPie, so what better place to have an entire general store based around them? In addition to MoonPies, the general store also carries a wide selection of quirky, retro toys, novelty items and candy. There's also a whole section of Tennessee and Chattanooga related items, from bottles of BBQ sauce to moonshine.

Merchants on Main

"Local Shopping"

Merchants on Main is a unique and delightful venue for shopping in Chattanooga's Southside Historic District. The shop is actually a market, a collection of over 20 different local retailer booths all under one roof. A perfect one-stop shopping destination. You can find all kinds of goods here, from furniture to specialty food items, gifts, antiques, home decor and everything in between. If you're looking for a truly Chattanooga piece, Merchants on Market is a sure bet.
