"Eccentric Art"

If you are into quirky, contemporary art then it would be a wise decision to head to aceartinc. Exhibitions here include a variety of artwork like photography, installations and more being showcased. Some artists have their premier show at this famed gallery. The dissemination of social awareness also finds a great platform through aceartinc. Tickets or seats for events here are hard to come by, so book in advance to avoid disappointment.

Urban Shaman Contemporary Aboriginal Art

"Indigenous Artworks"

If you are fascinated by aboriginal art, then Urban Shaman Contemporary Aboriginal Art will surely pique your interest. This wonderful gallery is a fabulous platform for established and upcoming First Nations artists. Opened in 1996, this gallery which is predominantly done up in white features huge columns that add a unique character to the exhibition space. Admire the paintings, photography and still life displayed here that give an insight to the Aboriginal Canadian community. Besides exhibitions, they also regularly host workshops for budding artists.

Plug In Institute of Contemporary Art

"Modern Progressive Art"

Plug In Institute of Contemporary Art, in operation since 1973, has dedicated itself the expressions of progressive art, including the works of the LGBTQ community artists. Although there are some excellent exhibits of fine art, popular art exhibits are not left out. The gallery caters largely to up-and-comers in various artistic disciplines and the purpose of this group is to expand cultural expression. The gallery building is located in the historic Exchange District, so take in some history along with the evocative art.

The Winnipeg Art Gallery

"An Art Lover's Delight"

The Winnipeg Art Gallery is a great place to spend a whole day and watch it slip by so beautifully, amidst contemporary and fine art, as well as photographic and cultural delights. The special Inuit art collections ranging over 60 years are an impressive display. This place not only believes in preserving its local culture, but promotes and initiates art and photography, with its classes and special guided tours for children and adults alike. If that is not enough, the impressive architecture of the building can charm your way into planning your wedding with its cathedral architecture in the Eckhardt Hall or a perfect summer wedding in its rooftop sculpture garden. This venue is a regular for corporate events as well.
