Kermit's Key West Key Lime Shoppe

"Baked Goodies for Foodies"

Kermit's Key West Key Lime Shoppe is a dessert and gift shop known for their scrumptious lime pies that are baked on site. In addition to pies, they also sell a wide range of pastries, cupcakes, candies, sauces, jellies and ice creams. If you aren't sure about what you're going to buy, you can ask the staff to provide you with samples of the goodies that interest you. If you're not a huge fan of sweets, Kermit's also serves up a few Mexican-style main course items, salads, and soups.

Kino Sandals

"Handmade Soles"

Founded by Roberto and Margerita Lopez in 1966, Kino Sandals got its name from Roberto Lopez's childhood nickname. A Cuban style building, this factory and store is quite famous for its sole-solutions. Original in-house designs coupled with traditional handmade technique make Kino truly unique. Innovative names like Margarita, Men's Lily and Mercedes only add to the lure of this store. Be it men, women or children, Kino Sandal Factory has something for everyone. And at surprisingly affordable prices!
