Trattoria Centrale

"Italy Meets Birmingham"

Trattoria Centrale is a popular, casual place located in Birmingham's bustling downtown. The trattoria serves Italian-inspired dishes, from pizzas with toppings ranging from three cheese to sweet potato or egg to pastas and salads. The trattoria is especially well known for its daily specials, which might be anything from Chicken Piccata to Panzanella. They also source much of their produce from their own rooftop garden, and are especially popular for their Sunday brunch.

Slice

"Craft Brews and Craft Pizza"

Conceptualized by three brothers, this restaurant is located in Birmingham's Lakeview neighborhood. The restaurant offers a fresh spin on pizza classics, using local ingredients and seasonal offerings to come up with original pizza combinations. Beer is an integral part of the menu here, and each pizza is thoughtfully paired with a recommended craft brew. The alfresco patio is a popular summer venue and welcomes families, friends, and couples alike. While the menu is always changing, favorites include the Perfect Pepperoni, Basic Pesto, The Lakeview, and What the Duck.

Bottega

"An Elegant Italian Bistro"

Bottega offers an eclectic menu of Italian-inspired dishes in a very stylish setting. The building resembles a Roman civic structure, with faux archways and a decorative concrete facade. The decor is Art Deco in style, and the furnishings are elegant and tasteful. The menu features a wide array of appetizers and entrees that change daily. Though many of the dishes are Italian-inspired, they also make good use of local ingredients. The dessert menu and the wine lists are extensive to suit all palates.
