J.A. Moisan

"The Oldest Shop in North America"

Step into the Maison Jean-Alfred Moisan in Upper Town to find the oldest grocery store in North America. Old melodies, playing in the background, will take you back in time. The ancient interiors of the store go back to the 18th century. Besides being a grocery store, it also functions as a museum, an antique shop and even a wine and liquor store!

Zimmerman

"Handcrafted Perfection"

Considered to be one of the finest jewellery makers in Quebec, Zimmerman delights with their refreshing designs and a hawk-eyed attention to detail. The boutique was established by Michel Zimmerman in 1990, after numerous years of learning and designing jewellery for prestigious brands in Paris. One of the secrets to their near-flawless quality, is all of their jewellery is handcrafted without the use of casting. From classic designs to cutting-edge contemporary pieces, the boutique has something for everyone. A must-visit if you're looking for gifts for a special someone.

La Boutique de Noël de Québec

"Festive Boutique"

The spirit of Christmas never fades at this boutique specializing in all things festive. You'll be transported to a magical land as soon as you step inside, with the store decked up in fairy-lights and awash with hues of red. From beautiful tree ornaments and nativity decor to gifts and one-of-a-kind souvenirs, the store's collection is all-encompassing. The store remains perennially crowded in the weeks preceding Christmas, and is one of the city's favorites to stock up on festive goodies.
