Fat Cat Bar & Grill

"Lively Double Decker Bar"

The Fat Cat Bar & Grill is located in the heart of Springfield's Club Quarter. Featuring two floors of bar, the upstairs of which has a lounge type feel to it, the Fat Cat also has an outside area for smokers or those who just want to catch some fresh air. Featuring live music during the week and weekends, the Fat Cat is a good place to stop during a night on the town.

Theodore's Booze, Blues & BBQ

""Eat Ribs or Die""

This restaurant's name says it all--Booze, Blues and BBQ. Theodore's was given a Keeping the Blues Alive award and named the Best Blues Club in the Country in 2004 by the Blues Foundation, so you know this is the place to come for some real, authentic Blues. But that's not all you'll find here! Make sure not to miss out on the menu, featuring everything from individual pizzas, to Gumbo, and of course, lots of amazing Barbecue. And don't skip the drinks either, try the World's Greatest Margarita or Bayou Punch. Theodore's is just a little taste of the Deep South in New England.

Moan & Dove

"A Bounty of Beer"

Moan & Dove is a must-visit bar for all of those people who truly appreciate beer. Located in Amherst, the beer selection here is very impressive, with a selection of about two dozen brews on tap, including some from breweries like Allagash and Bear Republic. Additionally, they sell a wide variety of bottles of ales and lagers from around the world. Between these world class beers, all of the peanuts that you can eat, and the great company and service, Moan & Dove is a great gathering spot.
