St. Elmo Steak House

"Wine and Dine in Style"

Come and visit the oldest steakhouse in Indianapolis. Established in 1902, St. Elmo Steak House has a reputation that precedes it and with good reason too! The traditional atmosphere, professional service and distinguished menu lead people to follow in love with this place. Once you are here, feast on the steaks, chicken and seafood, and wash it all down with the wide selection of wines! While you are checking out the wines, also check out the array of cocktails on offer. The tantalizing concoctions are not famous without a reason. If you are looking for a place for fine dining, give this historic institution a try and you won't be disappointed.

Rick's Cafe Boatyard

"Seafood & Jazz"

Rick's Cafe Boatyard is by the waterside overlooking the Eagle Creek Reservoir. It is a spacious yet cozy setting on the inside out. Diners have the option of eating upstairs in the Diamond room, with its large windows and magnificent view; downstairs in the Pearl room, which has more of a family atmosphere; or on the patio, where the best view of the water is to be had. Rick's offers one of the best seafood dishes in the Midwest with their fresh ocean fish and innovative cuisine. Plus, there is a live jazz band to entertain you while you enjoy your delectable seafood feast.

Peterson's

"Great Food and Massive Wine Selection"

Peterson's will pamper you with their sublime food, award winning wine and hospitality. This upscale family owned and run steakhouse serves only the freshest of ingredients in their menu thereby changing seasonally. The food will tantalize you and the wine will delight you. With more than 500 labels of wine across ten countries, it does become difficult to choose which will pair best, their knowledgeable staff comes in handy here to suggest the best pairing. The chic decor with its high backed booths, stained glass room separators, dim lighting of the menorah and big flower arrangements, gives it a warm an intimate touch. Yes the pricing is high, but the service, gorgeous food and wonderful wine makes up for it. Reservations recommended, but be advised that Peterson's only 21 and older can dine here.
